Grateful for this life
and for you.
♡ Laurie

Hello Friends,

There was a time when making soap simply meant creating something beautiful for my family. Somewhere along the way, it became so much more than that.

Today, every bottle, every lotion, every shower gel, and every jar of powder begins with one question...

How do I help someone feel cared for today?

I hope these little creations bring you moments of peace, comfort, and joy in your everyday life. You deserve it.

WHY HANDMADE MATTERS

I believe your skin deserves real ingredients. That's why I choose nourishing oils and butters that nature has given us.

Olive Oil

Kukui Oil

Avocado Oil

Shea Butter

I never use unnecessary fillers or shortcuts. Just honest ingredients, small batches, and a whole lot of heart.

Handmade with care. Made for you.

Until Next Time...

Thank you for inviting Serenity Soaps and More into your home. I never take that for granted.

Every order you place supports a dream that began many years ago around my kitchen table.

I hope these little things I make become part of the quiet moments you create for yourself and for the people you love.

With gratitude,
Laurie
